

CD NO.

NO. OF PAGES 1

NO. OF ENCLS.
(LISTED BELOW)

SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 25X1A

BY THE JURY STATES THAT THE MEANING OF THE ESPIONAGE ACT OF U. S. C. 81 AND 82, AS AMENDED, NO TRANSMISSION OR THE REVELATION OF THE CONTENTS IS ANY MANNER TO AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS PROHIBITED BY A/C. REPRODUCTION OF THIS TEXT IS PROHIBITED.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. There are two classes of commissars in the organization of the Iranian Frontier Guards: first-class commissars, who are majors, lieutenant colonels, or colonels; and second-class commissars, who are captains or majors.
2. An Iranian commissar is accredited to his opposite number on the Soviet side of the border in the same way as a diplomatic representative is accredited to the government of the country of his assignment.
3. The usual table of organization of a commissariat is as follows:

- 1 first or second-class commissar;
1 secretary
1 interpreter;
1 or 2 ardeles* (orderlies) - on foot;
1 or 2 ardeles* - mounted or acting as chauffeurs;
1 or 2 informants; and
1 or 2 houseboys.

25X1C

CLASSIFICATION ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~/CONTROL U. S. OFFICIALS ONLY

[illegible]

Next Review Date: 2008

Approved For Release 2001/03/05 : CIA-RDP82-00457R006100020003-3